

Outdoor Tennis/Pickleball Courts Guidelines

- Tennis/Pickleball courts will reopen under phase 2 effective Monday, June 15 of the reopening plan in a limited capacity with considerations to social distancing.
- Tennis/Pickleball courts will have signage reminding players to adhere to the 6' social distancing rules.
- Tennis/Pickleball courts will limit the amount of people per court to 4 during phase 2, and only certain courts will be available for reservation to allow more space between players on the courts (Courts 1, 3,5,7,9 & 11 for Tennis, Court 13 for Pickle Ball & tennis backboard use only).
- No water cooler or equipment will be provided.
- Temperature will be taken when you enter the facility for restrooms and water fountains. Please mention the name of the reservation that your court is using for access to the facility.
- Court reservations will be restricted to existing Recreation and Tennis Center members.
  - Doubles Play: Members will be allowed to have no more than 3 non-member guests on their court, and will incur a $1.50 charge per non-members guest per reservation.
  - Singles Play: Non-member guests will incur a $4.50 charge per reservation.
- All court reservations must be made over the phone or via email to the Tennis Administrator in advance at cristina.escamos@missouricitytx.gov or 281-403-8629. Court reservations may be made no more than 2 days in advance.
- Reservations will required member's name and their guest(s).
- Any court fees must be paid over the phone. Only credit card payments will be accepted.
- Members may only make one court reservation for 1.5 hours at a time and only one court may be reserved per member each day. Members who made the reservation must be present and playing.
- Private, Semi and group private lessons for 4 students or less are now being offered by Missouri City/King Daddy Tennis Pros.
- Court use is restricted to Singles, Doubles play and Private lessons from King Daddy Tennis Pros.
